Infinite Return on Investment?

If the reward is great enough, it is always wise to invest for the chance of gaining it.

70 years

Eternity

Therefore, spend the time to:

- 1) Investigate if there are rewards and punishments after the grave.
- 2) If so, find the correct path to obtain one and avoid the other.
- 3) Walk on that path, to the end.

Think you already know the answer?

People can be deceived. Double-check your work, especially 2 and 3. You do not want to get this question wrong.

Why Israel

God created this world, but we rebelled and strayed into evil.

God sought out his defiant children by creating a nation, Israel. In the Jews, God revealed himself over the centuries, proving it by hundreds of miracles, predictions, and corroborating witnesses.

Finally, God offered us a place in his future kingdom and a pardon from wrath through his chosen one, Jesus.

God's plan is told in the Bible, a history of Israel's encounters with him. Grab hold of this fantastic offer before time runs out.

Other religions were invented by men, or they distort the Jewish/Christian message. They do not speak correctly about God.

Using your own version of God, or borrowing another's, ends in disaster. Don't do it.

GLOBAL WARMING What did Jesus say

Long ago, he told his church what precedes his 2nd coming.

“The angel sounded his trumpet. A third of the earth and trees, and all the grass burned up.” Revelation 8:7

“The angel poured his bowl on the sun, and it scorched people with fire. They cursed God who controls these plagues, but refused to repent and glorify him.” Revelation 16:8-9

Jesus warned of further judgments upon this doomed planet.

But — he made an escape route to his Father's new earth. Find it.

Pick Your Destiny

It's completely your choice

The Solo Christian

Love Jesus, but avoid churches?

Belonging to Christ requires belonging to his body.

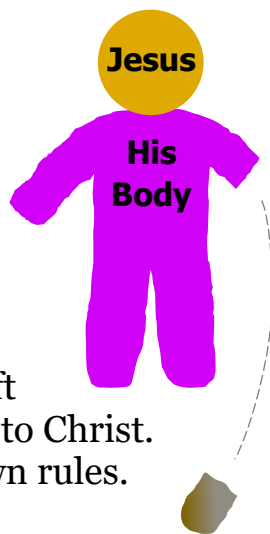

In the church we live out patience, humility, love.

In ancient Israel loner Jews were not allowed. All had to participate.

Jesus and his apostles left us conditions for joining to Christ. We can't make up our own rules.

There is one body of believers, the bride Jesus is coming for at his return.

The savior calls, "Come home."

Reincarnation

Let's hope not!

If reincarnation is true, at death some part of you is recycled to a new person. But you yourself fall asleep and never wake up. Death wins. That's it?

If you love Jesus, you wake up after death still yourself. You remember it all like you do every morning, but with a new body in a glorious world. Life wins in a landslide. Fantastic!

The vast superiority of Jesus' proposition does not prove it's true – yet there is proof. But . . . wouldn't it be sensational news if it were true?

The sensible approach is carefully investigate the arguments for yourself, but without any prejudice.

Sexual Morals

Who Decides

Many Christians think sexual codes shouldn't be reworked by personal preference or majority public opinion.

They believe only our Creator has the wisdom, benevolence, virtue and authority to set these rules.

They cling to the laws given by God's ambassadors, from Moses on down to Jesus and his apostles.

Feel differently? Well, it's not us you disagree with.

All Religions

Do they teach the same thing?

The world's religions often present completely opposite views on: creation, deities, sin, salvation, afterlife . . .

Some people assume each religion has a part of the truth, but how could we ever know which part to trust? A compass which points north only sometimes will leave you lost at sea.

Do the math. Their glaring disagreements mean most religions can't be authentic. You do not want to be ignorant on this topic. Figure out what is genuine.

Freedom of Religion

The first amendment reads: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof . . ."

Who is restricted? Only the 535 members of Congress, and furthermore only what laws they are forbidden to make.

Those bent on still "prohibiting" religion get around this by slyly re-defining "Congress making laws" as "anything remotely related to government".

Was the Bible Altered?

We have copies of the Bible created in nearly every century in the past 2000 yrs.

There are thousands of these copies, plus translations and quotes. They're from many countries in Asia, Europe & Africa, making tampering by a few impossible.

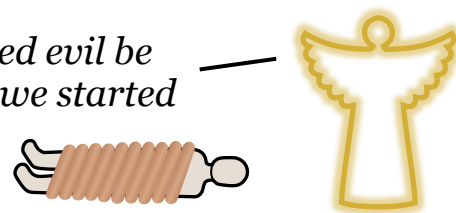

Compare old, intermediate and new, and you'll see the exact same stories about Moses, David, Jesus & Paul. Differences are minor and do not affect the meaning.

You can easily verify this, so don't plan on the "Bible's been changed" defense when you stand before God one day.

For many, their view of God relies mainly on what they think he's like. "God would do this. He'd never do that."

Our opinions alone aren't enough, any more than they would be for how a transistor works. Humanity's conflicting views of God prove this. The arrogant insists, "Then, I alone must be right." The apathetic says, "Everyone is right."

There is a correct view. It comes from outside our brain, like all truths. We still use our brain to sift truth from error. You say, "I already know this", yet you still depend mostly on your infallible instinct.

Utopia

We've all dreamt of an ideal world, a dazzling paradise without evil, pain or death. At times we get brief tastes of it in this life. But history often reminds us that this world will never, ever get there.

Do you know that God promised a utopia for mankind, through his prophets in ancient Israel? Next century or next week, Jesus will suddenly come from the sky, with a new age. No one can stop him.

However, not everyone is going to be let in. Jesus and his apostles explained to us the way to get in. This is no fantasy. God's nation, Israel, and his son, Jesus, were historical. They could be touched. And so will God's new world be. You ready?

We all need amnesty, and God gives it through Jesus Christ. God will accept no other arrangement. Read what Jesus and his apostles said in the Bible. But, you must follow everything they call for. Picking only what you like nullifies the contract. Don't fool around with this. You could die tomorrow and miss it.

Consider these may be warning shots from God, calling for your surrender now. Don't be deceived with the majority, even some churches, who scoff at this idea.

It's common practice to price a product at $9.99 instead of $10.00. There is one and only one reason this is done, and we all know what that reason is. The seller wants to manipulate and slightly mislead the buyer's perception of the price. This is sleazy business practice. Being only mildly underhanded doesn't make it okay, and neither does the fact that most everyone does it.

An ethical person who follows the golden rule of Jesus will never, ever assign a price like $9.99 or $9.95. Any slight loss in sales, if there even is a loss, is far outweighed by doing what is right in God's eyes.

Gender Identity

“Woe to those who quarrel with their Maker . . . Does the clay say to the potter, ‘What are you making?’”

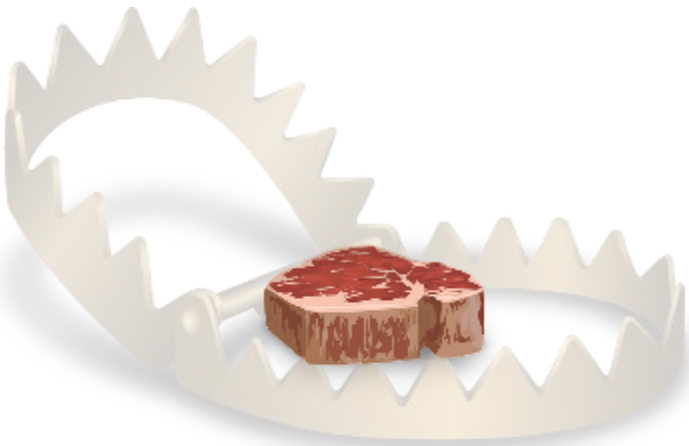

Isaiah 45:9 NIV

Some people have elected to switch genders from the one God gave them at birth. Their choice is based on their own ideas or desires, while God's choice is unmistakably seen in their body parts.

Those who accept God's gift with gratitude will ultimately find peace. Those who reject the work of their Creator's hands will face his wrath, as seen in the shortened life spans of those who go down this tragic road.

It Was Rigged!

Some people claim the 2020 election was tampered with. Others claim the same thing for the Bible. In both cases, the proof given is as follows. Minor irregularities in the process are identified, which no one disputes. From these, wide spread fraud and conspiracy is imagined, and a story is fabricated, with no supporting evidence.

What you believe about the election won't condemn you, but dismissing the message God gave us through the Bible will. Minor irregularities in the composing and copying of the Bible come no where close to corrupting its message, especially considering the Bible repeats its main points multiple times from many angles.

We sleep by excessive devotion to trifles like sports, hobbies and internet. We're comatose when immersed in the fictional worlds of cinema, novels and video games.

Some refuse to give these up, or are deluded into thinking Jesus won't do that. He meant it. Wake up.

The Mark of the Beast

666

The Bible threatens eternal torment for taking the mark of the beast. History has many men, regimes & religions fitting the beast's description in Revelation ch 13, 14. They replace God, demand allegiance and oppress those who resist.

The mark is a metaphor: loyalty to the beast who is adored as a savior, or bowed before to avoid its wrath. You're not safe just because you have no physical mark.

Short sighted Nazi collaborators choose the wrong side. Will you? Ensure your devotion is only to the true God and his appointed Savior, Jesus. Cling to him in the face of all persecution.

Gray Areas

Moral issues can have a gray area, where the boundary between right and wrong isn't clear. Opinions differ on whether an issue has a gray area, and if so what falls into it. How far can you drift over the speed limit? When is divorce allowed? How many months after conception does abortion become murder?

Those who obey God search hard to learn where He draws the line. But eliminating the gray isn't always possible. In those cases, the ones who love God stay out of the gray entirely, keeping to the light side. Those caring little for right and wrong push far into the grey, inevitably dipping into the dark side. Satan’s lie to Eve in the garden of Eden is still believed. Most people continue to disobey God and expect no consequences.

We cry bloody murder at the villains all around us, but we presume that our own wrongs will go unpunished.

PGMOC.org

Why Use THAT Name?

We've all heard someone blurt out "Jesus Christ" when angry. Usually, it comes from a non-Christian, who has no interest in Jesus. Isn't it curious how they are the ones speaking his name most often in public?

The Bible tells us, "The whole world lies in the power of the evil one." It makes sense that the Devil would incite the ungodly to drag his enemy's name through the mud. Next time you hear it, you may be witnessing Satan's handiwork.

PGMOC.org

I'm Not As Bad As Him!

When grading our own morality, there is a tendency to compare with society's worst villains, since they make us look clean. Mass shooters and child molesters become a kind of perverse savior. They make it easy for the rest of us, because we only need to keep our conduct some distance ahead of theirs.

This reasoning is flawed to the core. The crimes of others have zero relevance to your own sins. They do not cancel your own guilt before a court or God. Beware you aren't blinded by this mistake. You, and the criminal you look down on, may both be headed for divine punishment.

Wife Swapping

We all know someone who left a spouse and married another. The Bible flatly forbids this if the first spouse is still living. Jesus called it adultery.

Any exception alluded to in the Bible would never apply to most cases, but those eager to trade a spouse stretch the exception well beyond its scope.

To whitewash over their sin, perpetrators claim that a divorce or annulment gives them moral consent. But this man-made paperwork is worthless in the eyes of God. It's wife swapping.

Call it divorce! It sounds more respectable.

Courtship – Not Dating

The wonderful romantic and physical relationship between a man and women was designed by God. His rules allow this intimacy only in marriage, and also tastes of it during courtship leading to marriage.

Dating, with no serious intention of marriage, is outlawed by our Creator. It is not a toy to be played with. God didn't change his mind just because dating has become widespread in western culture.

This disallows dating for many people, especially high school age. You may really want a boyfriend or a girlfriend, but you are taunting God, and he sees it.

This man, not the other, entered Jesus' paradise after death.

Slavery In The Bible

Is the Bible's position on slavery one of the reasons you dismiss Christianity? Most people with this attitude have never bothered to adequately study all that the Bible says on this topic. If you did, you would learn how different it is from the modern perception of slavery.

How can you fairly judge something without hearing what it has to say? Will assumptions and hearsay be enough to argue your case at the final judgment? "Oh, I can ignore the Bible and its promised final accounting. Its morality doesn't agree exactly with mine, so that guarantees it could never be from God."

COVID Lamentations

The biblical book of Lamentations pours out Israel's grief over their exile to Babylon. It details all they lost: security, food, health, homes, festivals, normalcy, joy. Sound familiar? 1/4th of the verses assert that God is the one who recalled these blessings from the Jews, because of their sins. The same Bible says God will do likewise to a world that refuses to honor him, increasingly so until Jesus appears.

Do you recognize this same loss of all we enjoy in the recent COVID pandemic? Or will you harden your heart, mocking the idea of a wrathful God, and dismissing the pardon he holds out to us through his son, Jesus? If so, it will get worse for you, and you won't understand why, so long as you reject your Creator's purpose for your life.

It matters not how often you attend church or what doctrines you agree with, or that you don't actually bow the knee before your false god.

Weren't you aware that God is jealous, expecting all of your devotion? The Bible is clear on this. It's irrelevant that you don't want to. You must do this or perish. God says this is doable, so believe him. Do not put it off. You may stand before him sooner than you think.

Generous, With Other's Money

Generosity is a virtue, but only with your own money. It's so easy to admonish the wealthy to "give more!" God may require it of them, but you can't. Lecturing the well-off to "be more generous to us" is selfish greed. God's command to "give" does not flip-flop to "take" just because someone is richer than you.

This crops up in state social programs and taxes. A God-fearing poor person will never let their vote be swayed by a promise to have the rich pay a larger share. This would be using their vote to demand, "Give us your money."

I believe in giving.
Not me, you.

God Speaks By Prophets

One of the primary ways God reveals himself is through biblical messengers like Moses, Isaiah, Jesus and Paul. This means we do not each get a personal interview with the Creator. Some don't like having to trust others, so they look for truth where God hasn't put it, or worse yet they foolishly ignore him.

Most of what we have learned came from others we trusted. So, God's method will work, if we distinguish his prophets from the many charlatans, which isn't hard to do. We all started out as rebels against him, so take his gracious gift without faulting how he delivers it.

REJECTED

Do you know the biblical story where Jews reject and violate one of their own brothers? Later on, the one cast aside is promoted to power, becoming the savior of the very brothers who spurned him. Is this Joseph or Jesus? It is both. Likewise, Moses, David, Jeremiah and others were persecuted by fellow Jews, before being recognized as sent by God.

Many Jews do not realize how much Jesus resembles the Jewish prophets. Like Joseph, Jesus was dramatically exalted so that he could offer forgiveness and a chance to live. Today, his arms are open first to his brothers, and also to the Gentiles.

Am I Human Yet . . . Mom?

When does an unborn baby become a human? After 8, 16, 24 weeks, or when it's 51% outside its mother? Will you soften your heart and see how arbitrary that line is? Would you want your fate decided like that?

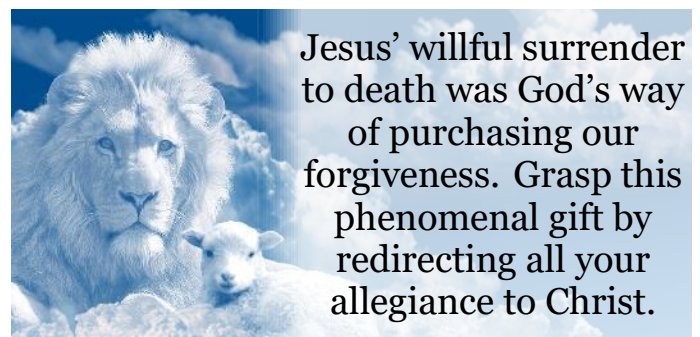

Murderers tend to delude themselves as to the victim's right to live. They kill for personal gain, but their deed comes back to haunt them. If you think it's a grey area, God commands that you err on the side of mercy.

The Courage of God

God showed tremendous courage when he left heaven, laid aside all his divine powers, and became the man Jesus Christ. He lived 33 years with our griefs and weaknesses. He was extending his arms in love to a world in mutiny, a revolt confirmed by our murdering him.

Jesus' willful surrender to death was God's way of purchasing our forgiveness. Grasp this phenomenal gift by redirecting all your allegiance to Christ.

Woe to you if you disrespect God's brave rescue. You will be forced to pay in full for all of your wrongdoings.

Why I Know Miracles Never Happen

I must see it, since people are unreliable (except me). Someone else doesn't count.

A few proven frauds let me assume that all miracle stories must be fake.

Since I already know who is right, I quickly believe anything disproving miracles, and I'm very resistant to believe miracle stories. But I'm not biased.

Since some are only a coincidence, that proves all must a coincidence.

The proof must be extraordinary (I can set the bar as high as I need to).

Science will one day answer it (the proof will appear someday in the future).

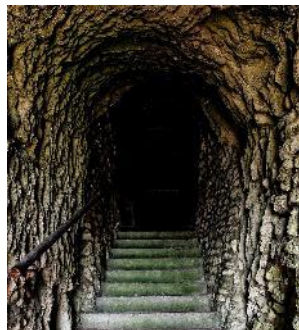

People are gullible (except me).

Jesus told us that he will be saying these 5 words to many who thought they were Christian. Jesus also said, “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father.”

Do you call Jesus ‘Lord’, but he is not your master?

If this might be you and you value your soul, then fix it now! Men have watered down Jesus' gospel. Dig into the Bible and seek God with tearful prayers. Leave no chance that Jesus will “throw you into the outer darkness.”

You Been Tricked?

Christianity says Satan is the enemy of Jesus, bent on deceiving the human race. He spreads lies to discredit the Bible, and he places phony Christians in the church to embarrass it.

In the past 2000 years, many sceptics took up the challenge to not passively accept Satan's propaganda. They gladly became servants of Christ once they examined the facts for themselves.

How to get into heaven according to Jesus

Summing up the gospel in a few sentences tends to distort it. Some attempts get closer than others.

To know the pure gospel, study the entire Bible and summarize it for yourself. Start with a blank sheet, permitting zero influence from what you've previously heard or your own preferences. Do not pick and choose. The whole Bible must instruct you, the student, on God's way to heaven.

Life is priceless. Fight to hold onto it, while you still can.

In a witch hunt, the hunters search for the guilty, certain they are under every rock. Convinced they champion a just cause, they destroy the innocent, pulling many into their frenzy of fearmongering.

Rampant allegations of racism are today's witch hunt. The few cases which can be proven are leaned on to wildly exaggerate the scope. Smug, modern day McCarthys suppose they are doing good, but their indiscriminate accusations mock justice.

This is a simple appeal to consider reading them. They are easily found on the internet, even in your native language.

No matter what you've been told about their authenticity, why not make your own judgment. What you read will not match what you've heard second hand. You don't have to tell anyone. You can set it down any time.

My gut keeps reminding me to get back on your road and stay there, but then I change my mind, back and forth, back and forth. God, if you'd persuade me, win me over, preach to me, that would help a lot. I realize you might do it through a person I can't stand, but I'll make myself listen. I'm pretty sure I'm lost, my soul that is. Please - come get me."

Seeking God

Why is God hard to find? His message is buried in the noise of false religions and men's opinions. Mankind's root malady is lack of submission to and love for God. The Lord makes us jump hurdles to find him, to prove a genuine change of heart. If we are not willing, we remain lost. If a child won't do his homework, we harm him if we do it for him.

Whoever seeks God with all their heart can find him. God has promised that it's not beyond our ability. God assists with the search, but he will not do our part for us.

- She has sins you're not aware of. Others may sin far more, but that matters zilch.
- Many so-called Christians who don't do God's will won't go to heaven either.

God sets the criteria, not us. Rejecting the Bible because you don't like it will end very badly for you.

"In the last days scoffers, following their own evil desires, will say, 'Where is this coming he promised?' By God's word, the heavens and earth are kept for the day of judgment.

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise. Instead he is patient, not wanting any to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

The day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar, and the elements destroyed by fire. So, you ought to live holy lives as you look forward to the day of God, and to a new heaven and earth."

During WW2 in occupied Europe, short sighted Nazi collaborators briefly enjoyed the high life, but paid dearly for their deeds after the war. They could have saved their neck by switching to work for the resistance before the Allied armies arrived, even though it risked the wrath of the occupying power.

What a picture of our present world, occupied and ruled by God's enemies. Jesus' D-Day is on the horizon and his kingdom will win, but you must switch sides now! There are no neutral bystanders. You either work for Jesus, briefly enduring the fury of his foes, or you are a collaborator.

1st To Jews who believe in their Holy book 2nd

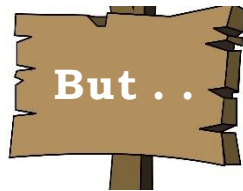

For centuries God sent many prophets warning ancient Israel of exile if they kept disobeying. They refused to change, so God sent Babylon to destroy the temple and carry them away. God let them return after 70 years. This happened again in 70 AD when God used the Roman empire. The 2nd exile lasted almost 2000 years.

Which raises 2 questions:

- 1) God's ways don't change. Who did he send to warn them before the 2nd exile?
- 2) Why did God make the 2nd exile so much more severe?

Find the answers in the histories and letters of the first century Jews, also called the New Testament.

Christianity and Women

The Bible does not present men and women as having identical roles, so non-Christians accuse the church of holding women back. Some in the church try to spin the Bible's position to catch up with an evolving culture, a culture under the dark influence of the Devil per the same Bible.

Christians will not fight what God has decreed. Unbelievers, by definition, reject God's authority. Christians respect Jesus' words, "The greatest among you will be your servant." Jesus himself laid aside his divine authority and came to serve. In God's eyes, the servant is greater than the one in charge. Those who don't know God nor his ways will naturally disagree.

Jesus

Luke 16:13 NIV

* This cannot rescue you from God's judgment, nor can it give you eternal life in God's coming paradise.

“Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned.”

Jesus Luke 6:37 NIV

It's common to express condemnation on one's fellow man, even when the blame is not fully deserved. Others enjoy listening to their favorite critic who eloquently pours accusations and judgments on a victim.

Those who genuinely believe in Jesus take his warning seriously. They refrain from condemning to escape being condemned.

Those who don't believe in Jesus will continue handing out condemnation, or love listening to it, bringing on their own heads the judgment Jesus guarantees.

HALLOWEEN

Do you like being entertained by: ghosts, witches, zombies, haunted houses, monsters, vampires, and other heroes of evil? God has forbidden these. They are diametrically opposed to his holy ways.

Some have no fear of blatantly flaunting their rebellion in God's face by delighting in creatures of darkness. They mistakenly believe that God is weak or indifferent or doesn't exist.

If you will give these up for good and submit to Jesus, he will forgive your past. If not, be warned that you are provoking your Creator to ever increasing anger, so that one day his terrible judgment will crash down on your head.

Do You Love A Bargain?

Shoppers love finding a deal, paying less than the typical price.

True Christians are equally happy paying the normal price, or paying higher than normal. This is because they believe in and embrace Jesus' command to "Love your neighbor as yourself." So, if the seller goes home with more money in his pocket, the Christian buyer is just as happy as if it had happened to him.

And, if a price seems high, a Christian would never assume that the seller did it out of greed. That would be breaking the ninth commandment.

Celebrate Meee!

Athletic superstars have adoring fans who love displaying their hero's name or image on their clothes & bedroom wall.

If they are privileged to see their god in person, they shout praise and delight.

If a true Christian achieves athletic success, they will never seek or participate in any form of idol worship. They will never divert to themselves even an ounce of the honor which belongs to God alone.

All genuine Christians avoid any behavior which remotely resembles the worship of an athlete or their name or image. They won't violate the first 2 commandments.

God's Mortal Enemy

“Christ must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.” I Cor 15:25-26 NIV

Death cannot survive before the glorious presence of the immortal God. This is why he sent Jesus to conquer it and to give eternal life to all his loyal servants.

Why then would you treat God's hated enemy with levity by making jokes about it, or for fun display its symbols like skulls? Why would you entertain yourself with stories and games full of killing?

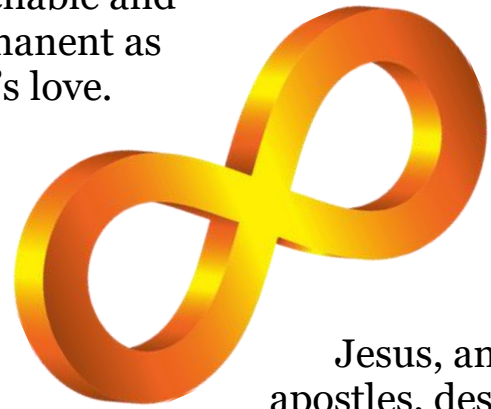

Pick a side, the Lord Jesus or death.

“God's Love Endures Forever.”

Psalm 136

How very smart to build your life upon a foundation as reliable and permanent as God's love.

Jesus, and his apostles, describe in detail how someone can do that. Go, study their words, then live by them.

“When you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do, to be honored by others.”

Jesus Matthew 6:2 NIV

Companies will announce their charitable donations to enhance their public image. People want their name inscribed on a wall to immortalize their gift to a cause.

A true Christian, who believes in Jesus and what he taught, will have nothing to do with such practices. They look for God alone to reward them, because they value his recognition instead of men's.

Do Not Forget This

“Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out! Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor? Who has ever given to God, that God should repay him? For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever!”

Romans 11:33-36 NIV

Intellectually, and in every other way, you are less than a speck of dust in comparison to God.

“A farmer went to sow seed. Some fell along the path, and the birds ate it. When anyone hears God’s message and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart.” Matthew chap 13

Jesus told us a parable of how different soils (i.e. people) respond to his gospel. With many, the Devil prevents the seed from ever taking root, but how?

For centuries, Satan has filled the world with plausible lies about creation, the spiritual world, morality, Christianity and the Bible. Many refuse to make the effort that would expose these as falsehoods, so God’s voice cannot penetrate the hard packed clay of their heart. Is this you?

Will You Think?

If you’re a member of a cult, you let the leaders do all your thinking. You will never question the group’s strongly held dogmas. Refusal to think on your own is deadly with any religious belief.

This also occurs outside of cults, and far too often. Here’s the problem. You know others do it, but you don’t see where you are doing it. Try this prayer: “God, am I blind? Out of arrogance, laziness or fear of man, am I locked into the beliefs of those around me? If so, in your mercy grant me a clear mind, and help me find the truth.”

God's Rod The Palestinians

The Jewish scriptures record numerous occasions when God himself sent Israel’s neighbors to attack his people. He did this to punish their ongoing rebellion and spur them to repent. Many Jews never responded to this chastisement. Instead, they mocked and resisted the prophets God had sent to warn them.

Nothing has changed. Modern Israel is a nation of atheists, agnostics & ritualistic Jews, who to this day reject the Messiah God sent to save them. They refuse to consider the possibility that the God of Abraham is the one sending the Palestinians because he is angry with Israel and is prodding them to turn to him.

Stamp of Approval

Among the worlds’ religions, only one founder was raised from the dead, and his resurrection is:

Well documented, by multiple sources
Fully historical (doesn’t read like a myth)
Predicted by the founder before he died
Accepted as true by millions

Since only God can bring the dead to life, this is an overwhelming validation of Jesus Christ and the religion he founded. God didn’t make a mistake. He would never have resurrected a heretic.

I think you can figure out what to do next.

Does the death penalty deter crime?

Many would say, “No!”

However, God said to us through Moses, “Stone them to death . . . then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no one among you will do such an evil thing again.”

“I met Jesus.
Trust me!”

“Many will come in my name and deceive many. If anyone says, ‘Here's the Messiah!’, do not believe it. For false prophets will appear and perform wonders to deceive.”

Jesus 30 AD Mark chap 13 NIV

The internet is full of stories from those who died, went to heaven, and came back to life claiming they met God or Jesus. These “prophets” can be convincing, and their message sounds heavenly, but their gospel is plainly different from what Jesus says in Matthew, Mark, Luke & John.

Can you trust them? What did Jesus say?

Good news! There is a fix. It comes by submitting to Jesus and daily living by the Holy Spirit whom he will give you and his wisdom found in the Bible. The Problem of Evil

Do you struggle to understanding why God doesn't put an end to all the evil in this world? Some make the terrible blunder of blaming him for our misery.

In Christianity, God has launched a fantastic plan to end all suffering and remove all evil doers, but it will be on his schedule not yours.

What to do:

Become a disciple of Jesus and stop adding to the evil yourself, so he won't remove you when he comes.

Wait patiently, never ever pointing an accusing finger at God.

He's Done It Before - Twice

When Jesus returns to earth, next century or next week, he has promised that he will resurrect his faithful ones with a glorious and immortal body.

Some refuse to believe that God will perform such a dramatic act of creation, since they've never seen it before.

But they have seen it. The feat that is yet to come will be the third time God will have carried out a major upgrade to the physical body of his servants.

The Workaholic

In Luke ch 14, Jesus compares God's kingdom

to a master of the house who invites guests to his banquet. One man declines the invitation because he "just bought five yoke of oxen, and I'm on my way to try them out." The master becomes angry. He invites others in that man's place and insists that the one who excused himself will not "get a taste of my banquet."

You may be a church goer, but if your career takes priority over what God requires of you, know that God will shut you out of heaven. No one gets away with saying no to God.

The Bible's Old Testament specifically lists two men whose names God said he would make "great", Abraham (Gen ch 12) and King David (II Sam ch 7).

These two bold predictions were made centuries before Christianity ever began broadcasting their names across the planet. God knew back then that his missionaries would labor up until today in jungles and mountains to spread Christianity, and as a byproduct the fame of these two men.

Revolution!

Over the past few centuries, many nations have thrown out their king with a bloody rebellion.

God's command is to "Honor the king." (I Peter 2:17) As we would expect, Jesus modeled this perfectly by never lifting a finger against the Roman Emperor.

Pushing a king out at the point of a bayonet is clearly not honoring him. Yet some nations will celebrate their revolution as a noble step forward. True Christians always side with Jesus and could never celebrate such a defiant rejection of God's laws.

HATE CRIME

Our country has hate crime laws which assign a greater penalty if the crime is motivated by hate against a race, gender, religion, etc. These laws may have an appearance of good, and they claim to fight discrimination. However, when the penalty is enhanced only for victims of a certain group, it declares that group more worthy, which is discrimination. In addition, the alleged hate is hard to prove and is often assumed by societal bias. Penalties should be for evil actions alone. Dragging in "privileged groups" brings in bias and is unjust.

It's a miracle!

As a fetus grows, its DNA directs the construction of its organs, all in the correct order. Take some time and try to describe how dumb and mostly harmful mutations over many generations "designed" this process? You can't. No one can. Dozens of vital systems must work in the first generation, or the whole species goes extinct, every time.

Many will not bother to do this mental exercise. Yet they will continue to put blind faith in blind evolution (with its blind prophets) as mankind's supposed creator.

BTW, "You do it too" is not a valid reply.

For the Skeptic . . .

The Bible's New Testament contains an abundance of historical details on the life of Jesus, written down by a number of first century eyewitnesses.

For the extra cautious, who would like even more witnesses, consider this:

There are more than a half dozen credible references to the man Jesus by non-Christians who lived in the first or second century AD. These secular sources corroborate many biblical facts about Jesus including his birth, ministry, claims, miracles, death and resurrection.

Welcoming Foreigners

“Love the foreigner residing among you as yourself.”

God spoke thru Moses Leviticus 19:34

Some Americans are troubled by the foreigners flooding across our borders. True Christians are not bothered by this, because they imitate their Father God who is kind and generous to all those who are oppressed. Disciples of Jesus are not tight fisted. They are happy to share their peace and prosperity with those escaping violence and poverty. Also, Christians will not break the 9th commandment by accusing those seeking refuge of criminal intent.
